

25/07/2009

Yelland Brothers and Harry too much for the Casuals

Valiant efforts from Roebuck and Matt Denchfield not enough as Casuals go down with a fight

The Primary Club Casuals, fielding a team with 6 debutants, was ultimately no match for a well drilled Epsom side who ended up easing to victory. But the game did not pass without a scare as the Casuals came back seemingly from the dead to get themselves right back into the game at just after the half-way stage.

"We have had another great day courtesy of the Epsom Methodists," commented Allan Guild, stand-in Casuals Skipper. "If we had managed to get a few more on the board we might have made a game of it."

(96 words)

About The Primary Club (www.primaryclub.org)

Founded in 1955, The Primary Club's mission is to raise money to fund sporting and recreational activities for blind and partially sighted children. Now in its fifty-fifth year the Club has almost 8,600 members having raised a total of well over £2 million. In 2009 the Club donated £187,000 to a number of UK-based charities including Joseph Clarke School, The Royal London Society for the Blind and British Blind Sport.