

22/08/2009

Primaries Before Si Marries

The Casuals prove that they need a good night's sleep before a game...

The Primary Club Casuals, playing their traditional end of season fixture against Newport Inn, staggered to defeat after a Boyes hat trick. With 10 of the Casuals attending opening bowler Simon Hunter's stag weekend in Weymouth, arranging the long standing game in Braishfield, Hants, to break up the journey home seemed like a good idea back in winter. However the excesses of the night before proved too much, with the Casuals going down by 93 runs.

"This may not have been our most competent performance," commented Euan Spence, captain and best man. "but the three primaries for the Casuals certainly helped a good cause."

(105 words)

About The Primary Club (www.primaryclub.org)

Founded in 1955, The Primary Club's mission is to raise money to fund sporting and recreational activities for blind and partially sighted children. Now in its fifty-fifth year the Club has almost 8,600 members having raised a total of well over £2 million. In 2009 the Club donated £187,000 to a number of UK-based charities including Joseph Clarke School, The Royal London Society for the Blind and British Blind Sport.