

18/10/2009

Primary Club Casuals looking for more fixtures

Do you know a team in the South East looking for an additional Sunday fixture in 2010?

The Primary Club Casuals, a cricket team made up of people aged 16 - 60 in the London area with an affiliation to the Primary Club, are looking for some additional fixtures for the 2010 season.

The Casuals play to a Sunday friendly standard and over the past 5 years have played several games each year and have raised several hundred pounds for the Primary Club through selling teas and raffles etc.

"We are a team of varying skill and experience," commented Euan Spence, captain of the Primary Club Casuals . "but we all have a lot of fun playing for the Casuals, and we are looking to find some more similar teams to play in 2010."

(118 words)

About The Primary Club (www.primaryclub.org)

Founded in 1955, The Primary Club's mission is to raise money to fund sporting and recreational activities for blind and partially sighted children. Now in its fifty-fifth year the Club has almost 8,600 members having raised a total of well over £2 million. In 2009 the Club donated £187,000 to a number of UK-based charities including Joseph Clarke School, The Royal London Society for the Blind and British Blind Sport.